FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

November 2026

Dear Friends:

For many of us, when we think of November, the first thing that comes to mind is Thanksgiving (or maybe football followed by Thanksgiving). When I lived abroad in the Dominican Republic and Colombia, Thanksgiving was always the holiday that made me most homesick because there is no equivalent celebration in either country. There, Thanksgiving Day is just another Thursday!

I also love this holiday because there is not a lot of fanfare surrounding it. It is simple: you gather with family and friends and share a good meal. Hopefully, there is not too much stress involved, beyond making sure the turkey gets cooked through without becoming too dry. Furthermore, I love that in this simple setting we are invited to embrace the spirit of the holiday's name and take a moment to give thanks.

Within the Catholic Church, we understand the Eucharist to be the source and summit of who we are and what we do. In other words, it is the foundation, sustenance and high point of our lives. Interestingly, the word Eucharist comes from the Greek word eucharistia, meaning "thanksgiving" or "gratitude." This reminds us that giving thanks and maintaining an attitude of gratitude are central to our lives of faith as we follow Jesus.

This is important in the good times, when we want to recognize the source of our blessings and give credit where credit is due. But it is just as important in difficult times. This is not about ignoring our struggles, but rather about growing in our awareness of God's presence especially when we need it most. Maintaining an attitude of gratitude, even for the smallest things (there is never anything too small for which we cannot be grateful), fine-tunes our awareness of God's presence. This, in turn, helps us recognize how God is reaching out to us, especially in painful and difficult moments. So often, God is right there with us, yet we miss his presence, only realizing afterward how he was there all along.

An attitude of gratitude also helps us grow in humility. We are grateful for the gifts we receive, and when we speak of God's grace, we are speaking of what he gives us freely. When I take nothing for granted, whether it is something significant like good health or something as simple as a delicious egg roll, life suddenly becomes more beautiful and exciting. In turn, I also grow in humility and become more deeply connected to God and more dedicated to following Jesus.

When someone gives us a gift, it is only right that we express our thanks. This sense of gratitude also extends into our relationships with God and our neighbors, inviting us into an ongoing effort of reconciliation. This is not simply out of a sense of guilt, but rather from a place of humility and a desire to demonstrate our gratitude. In this sense, maintaining an attitude of gratitude leads us into a lifelong journey of conversion. It also helps keep us from becoming embittered, allowing us instead to share the joy of the Gospel, even in trying times.

On this last point, every time we celebrate the Eucharist and I pray the words of consecration, I am struck by the fact that Jesus "gives thanks" at the Last Supper. On the eve of his Passion, moments before being betrayed by one of his own disciples, Jesus still gives thanks. Consider, for example, the words of Eucharistic Prayer II:

> At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples.

Jesus gives thanks even as he faces suffering and death. His example reminds us that recognizing God's presence and grace, even in the most difficult moments, gives us the strength to carry forward.

As we come to the end of our liturgical year and prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving, let us remember to "give thanks to God and bless his name" at all times (Psalm 100). Please know, too, of my ongoing gratitude to God for each of you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Michael Wolfe

NOTA DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

noviembre 2026

Queridos amigos y amigas:

Para muchos de nosotros, cuando pensamos en noviembre, lo primero que nos viene a la mente es el Día de Acción de Gracias (Thanksgiving) (o quizás el fútbol americano, seguido por el Día de Acción de Gracias). Cuando vivía en el extranjero, en la República Dominicana y Colombia, esta era siempre la celebración durante la cual más extrañaba mi país, porque en ninguno de esos dos países existe una celebración equivalente. ¡Allí, el Día de Acción de Gracias es simplemente un jueves más!

También me encanta esta celebración porque no hay tanto alboroto a su alrededor. Es algo sencillo: reunirse con familiares y amigos y compartir una buena comida. Ojalá que no haya demasiado estrés, aparte de asegurarse de que el pavo quede bien cocido sin que se reseque demasiado. Además, me gusta que, en medio de esta sencillez, se nos invite a vivir el espíritu que inspira el nombre de esta celebración y a tomarnos un momento para dar gracias.

En la Iglesia católica, entendemos que la Eucaristía es la fuente y la cumbre de todo lo que somos y hacemos. En otras palabras, es el fundamento, el sustento y el punto culminante de nuestra vida. Curiosamente, la palabra *Eucaristía*proviene del término griego eucharistia, que significa «acción de gracias» o «gratitud». Esto nos recuerda que dar gracias y mantener una actitud de gratitud son elementos centrales de nuestra vida de fe y de nuestro seguimiento de Jesús.

Esto es importante en los buenos momentos, cuando queremos reconocer de dónde vienen nuestras bendiciones y dar el crédito a quien corresponde. Pero es igualmente importante en los momentos difíciles. No se trata de ignorar nuestras luchas, sino de crecer en nuestra conciencia de la presencia de Dios, especialmente cuando más lo necesitamos. Mantener una actitud de gratitud, incluso por las cosas más pequeñas (nunca hay nada tan pequeño por lo que no podamos dar gracias), nos ayuda a afinar nuestra sensibilidad a la presencia de Dios. Esto, a su vez, nos permite reconocer cómo Dios sale a nuestro encuentro, especialmente en los momentos dolorosos y difíciles. Muchas veces, Dios está allí mismo con nosotros, pero no nos damos cuenta de su presencia y solo después comprendemos que siempre estuvo a nuestro lado.

Una actitud de gratitud también nos ayuda a crecer en humildad. Estamos agradecidos por los dones que recibimos y, cuando hablamos de la gracia de Dios, nos referimos a aquello que Él nos concede gratuitamente. Cuando no doy nada por sentado, ya sea algo tan importante como gozar de buena salud o algo tan sencillo como disfrutar de un delicioso rollito de primavera, la vida de repente se vuelve más hermosa y emocionante. A su vez, también crezco en humildad, me acerco más profundamente a Dios y me comprometo cada vez más a seguir a Jesús.

Cuando alguien nos hace un regalo, lo correcto es expresar nuestro agradecimiento. Esta actitud de gratitud también se extiende a nuestras relaciones con Dios y con nuestros prójimos, invitándonos a un esfuerzo constante de reconciliación. No se trata simplemente de actuar por un sentimiento de culpa, sino de hacerlo desde la humildad y el deseo de demostrar nuestro agradecimiento. En este sentido, mantener una actitud de gratitud nos conduce a un camino de conversión que dura toda la vida. También nos ayuda a no dejarnos dominar por la amargura, sino a compartir la alegría del Evangelio, incluso en los momentos difíciles.

Sobre este último punto, cada vez que celebramos la Eucaristía y pronuncio las palabras de la consagración, me llama especialmente la atención que Jesús «da gracias» durante la Última Cena. En la víspera de su Pasión, momentos antes de ser traicionado por uno de sus propios discípulos, Jesús sigue dando gracias. Pensemos, por ejemplo, en las palabras de la Plegaria Eucarística II:

> «El cual, cuando iba a ser entregado a su Pasión, voluntariamente aceptada, tomó pan, dándote gracias, lo partió y lo dio a sus discípulos».

Jesús da gracias incluso cuando se enfrenta al sufrimiento y a la muerte. Su ejemplo nos recuerda que reconocer la presencia y la gracia de Dios, incluso en los momentos más difíciles, nos da la fuerza para seguir adelante.

Al acercarnos al final de nuestro año litúrgico y prepararnos para celebrar el Día de Acción de Gracias, recordemos dar «gracias al Señor y bendecir su nombre» en todo momento (Salmo 100). Quiero que sepan también que sigo dando gracias a Dios por cada uno de ustedes.

Su hermano en Cristo,

Fr. Michael Wolfe

MASS INTENTIONS

MASS INTENTIONS

At every Mass, the priest offers prayers for particular intentions. The faithful may request a Mass intention for a deceased loved one, a special need or in thanksgiving for blessings received. This is a beautiful and powerful way to unite our intentions with the prayer of the Church.

Many Masses in our Central City parishes do not yet have requested intentions. We invite you to consider having a Mass offered for your intentions in the coming year. It can include the daily Masses offered at St. Michael.

In keeping with our Catholic tradition, an offering is customarily made when requesting a Mass intention. The suggested offering in Wisconsin is $20, although it may be less if that amount is a hardship or more according to one's generosity. These offerings are also an important way of supporting our priests.

Normally, one intention is offered per Mass, although additional intentions may be accepted with the agreement of those making the requests. To request a Mass intention, please contact your parish office.

INTENCIONES DE MISA

En cada Misa, el sacerdote ofrece sus oraciones por intenciones particulares. Los fieles pueden solicitar que se celebre una Misa por un ser querido fallecido, por alguna necesidad especial o en acción de gracias por las bendiciones recibidas. Esta es una hermosa y poderosa manera de unir nuestras intenciones a la oración de la Iglesia.

Muchas de las Misas en nuestras parroquias del Centro de la Ciudad todavía no tienen intenciones solicitadas. Los invitamos a considerar la posibilidad de ofrecer una Misa por sus intenciones durante el próximo año. Puede ser también en las misas entre semana en San Miguel.

Según nuestra tradición católica, al solicitar una intención de Misa, se acostumbra a hacer una ofrenda. La ofrenda sugerida en Wisconsin es de $20, aunque puede ser menor si esa cantidad representa una dificultad económica, o mayor según la generosidad de quien la solicita. Estas ofrendas también son una manera importante de apoyar a nuestros sacerdotes.

Normalmente, se ofrece una intención por Misa, aunque se pueden aceptar intenciones adicionales con el consentimiento de quienes las solicitan. Para solicitar una intención de Misa, comuníquese con la oficina de su parroquia.

POLICY ON SPONSOR AFFIDAVIT FORM

In order to ensure that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors are meeting the canonical requirements to serve in these roles, going forward a sponsor affidavit form is to be used to ascertain sponsor qualifications.

The purpose of the form is to make sure that the person chosen as a godparent or a Confirmation Sponsor is able and willing to undertake this office in the Church. The Church wishes many, many people to be involved and invested in the growth and Christian upbringing of every child. While not everyone can or should be an official Sponsor, everyone has something to contribute to the ongoing formation of a young Christian. Should you have questions regarding this form, e-mail formation@centralmkecatholic.org.

BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

November is a significant month for honoring the contributions and heritage of Black Catholics in the United States. The observance was designated as Black Catholic History Month by the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus on July 24, 1990.

In November, we celebrate the feasts of All Saints and All Souls in loving remembrance, it is the birth month of St. Augustine, and when we celebrate the feast of St. Martin de Porres, the first Black saint of the Americas.

The focus provides an opportunity for reflection, learning, and celebration, as parishes and ministries are encouraged to incorporate the lessons and legacy of Black Catholics into their spiritual life, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation within the community
